

How Would NNU Dues Reduce Your Take-Home Pay?

NNU charges 2.2 times your base hourly wage rate every month up to a maximum of $170.22 per month.

That means dues could be up to $6,128 over a typical 3-year contract

That is equal to what you would pay for utility bills (water, gas, electricity) for three years

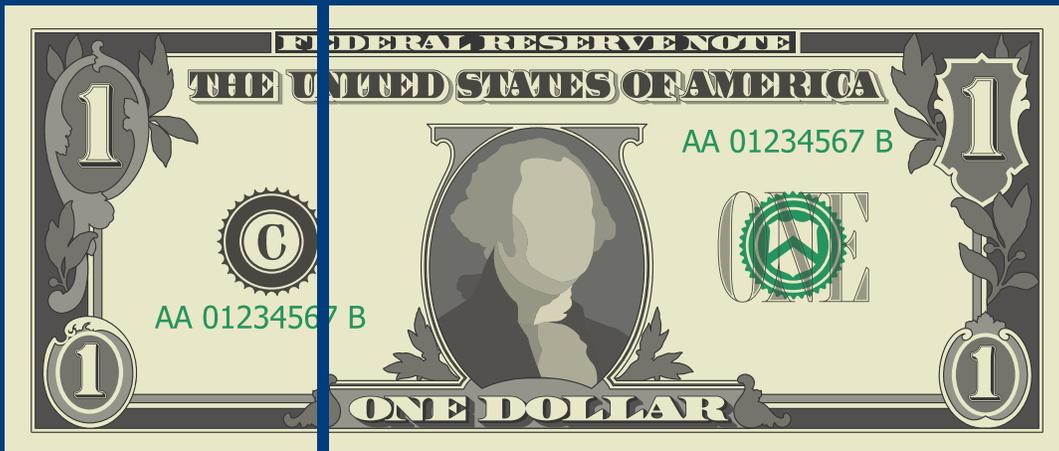

How Does NNU Spend Your Dues Money?*

29.8%

Dues money spent on behalf of members

70.1%

Dues money spent on the union (union salaries, office rent, supplies, travel, political donations, gifts, taxes etc.)

Less than 30 cents of each dollar of your dues payments would be spent on representational activities supporting you.
