

Does NNU Make Promises They Can't Keep?

Yes. Often. Unfortunately, making promises they can't keep is a typical tactic used by unions to get you to support them and sign an authorization card.

“

We can get you higher pay.

”

“

We will have staffing ratios.

”

“

We can get a safer work environment.

”

The truth is they cannot guarantee any of those things.

Unions are legally allowed to make promises they know they cannot keep. The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) has called such campaign tactics “pre-election propaganda.” *

We are committed to providing you with factual information about your work here and about unionization.

msmhnursesfacts.net

* Shirlington Supermarket, Inc., 106 N.L.R.B. 666

MedStar St. Mary's Hospital

Visit msmhnursesfacts.net for more information about unions and union organizing.

MedStar Health